THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE R.SUBHASH REDDY

WRIT APPEAL NO.1602 OF 2005

J U D G M E N T (Per the Hon'ble Sri Bilal Nazki, ACJ)

Heard learned counsel for the parties.

The order of the learned Single Judge has been challenged on the ground that the respondent was in arrears and therefore, the electricity supply was disconnected. Learned counsel for the respondent, however, submits that the appellants have already passed on order on 01-07-2005 restoring the power supply. In this view of the matter, no further orders are necessary to be passed. However, learned counsel for the appellants submits that the respondent was in arrears, whereas the respondent submits that in view of the Government's policy, he was not obliged to make payments towards the electricity consumption charges. Any way, that is a matter for the appellants to decide. If the respondent is in arrears of certain charges, the order passed by the learned Single Judge or the order passed by this Court would not be taken as an opinion that those amounts are not recoverable.

The writ appeal is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
